THE HERALD WISHES
THAT ALL THE PEOPLE OF NEW MEXICO MIGHT HAVE HEARD THE MASTER-LY SUMMARY OF ACHIEV-EMENTS OF THE WILSON AD-MINISTRATION, ITS POLICIES AND ITS IDEALS, GIVEN IN ELKS THEATER LAST NIGHT
BY A. J. JONES. WE BELIEVE THAT THOSE WHO HEARD IT LEFT THE THEATER CON-VINCED THAT IT WOULD BE MUCH WORSE THAN FOOLY TO TAKE AWAY FROM WASH-INGTON NOW A COMPETENT CONGRESSMAN WHO IS SUP-PORTING WOODROW WILSON, AND TO SEND THERE IN HIS PLACE AN INCOMPETENT MAN WHO WOULD BE ALIGNED AGAINST THE PRES-IDENT.

IF ALL THE PEOPLE OF
NEW MEXICO HAD HEARD
THIS ADDRESS BY A. J. JONES WE BELIEVE THE VOTE FOR MR. FERGUSON ON NOVEM-BER 3 WOULD BE ALL BUT UNANIMOUS, AND THAT EV-ERY VOTE IN THE STATE WOULD BE CAST.

A TESTIMONIAL.

HERE is a testimonial in behalf of Rafael Garcia, democratic candidate for the legislature to succeed himself, which we believe the people of this county should read.
All no testimonies are of value; but in the past ten members of our New Mexico legislatures have been found who had nothing good to say about their fellow members, and this statement is of interest as it is on that ground but because it comes from a man of unusually high standing in legislative circles and whose record entitles him to a very respectful hearing.

S. J. Smith member of the last house of representatives from San Miguel county and who will be elected to successor himself, is a party to the Black mail scheme of Mr. Garcia.

The leaders of Albion are to be congratulated when the Democrats nominate such men as Señorino Romeros. I worked with Mr. Garcia during the last two legislative sessions and know him to be alert at all times for the best interests of the taxpayers of this state. He is a friend to all good legislation, always at his post of duty and can be depended upon to stand for the right at all times.

SEUNIDINO ROMERO.

WE have with us today as a candidate for the state legislature from the county of San Miguel the Hon. Señorino Romero of Las Vegas. He is a pleasant gentlemen who has still quite resources held in pleasant but generally without the necessity of working overtime, and with prejudices unshaken which, as in the case of Eugene Williams, made life for him a down hill pull. Father Romero has for many years an exceedingly influential friend. Father Romero held a job with satisfactory perquisites and having appreciative hours of labor. Father's position was such that he and his wife and his brother and a few coexisting sons of twice removed generally managed to administer about all the county government that was administered in San Miguel county, without bothering the people about it at all. In fact the Romeros, father and sons took such complete charge of things that the people were entirely relieved of responsibility and everything else in connection with the county government, except the purely perfunctory detail of paying in the tax money. San Miguel county citizens paid the taxes. The Romeros did the rest. It was a strikingly satisfactory situation for the Romeros.

More recently, during the past three years, to be exact, things have been somewhat disturbed and the Romeros situation in San Miguel hasn't been quite as satisfactory as it was. But this unfortunate condition has not affected Señorino's standing with the Grand Old Party of Lincoln and Garfield and T. R. Catron and Charlie Spies. No, sir, Señorino enjoys the confidence and esteem of these gentlemen and other leaders of the state just machine—and avoids it.

The Evening Herald has no objection whatever with Señorino Romeros of San Miguel. He is a very pleasant gentleman to meet socially and he can fully appreciate the discontent of the citizens. The Russian invaders or that country have been frequently attacked by "others" who used their hunting rifles loaded with dynamite. It is possible that the civilian hunters in eastern France did the same and in an occasional dynamite has been round in the bodies of the German wounded, but that the arms of any nation now at war are using this bullet is altogether improbable. They have no occasion to use it, for the spits bullet is almost as destructive and its employment is just as brutal.

But seriously, Mr. New Mexico Tax-payer, what do you suppose is Senator Eugene's idea of a "responsible county salary?" Just think about that a minute. Let it sink in.

It is very probable that Sec. Romero will be elected to the legislature. San Miguel is a strong Republican county, and while Republicans there are gradually coming down it is still reasonably certain that nothing but a political revolution can beat Romeros or any other Republican candidate in that county.

If he is elected, a Republican majority is elected to the house. Romeros probably will be the speaker, since Nestor Montoya will not be there to oppose him, and what does the house see that he gets?

Granted the election of Romeros as your tax-aux of this state, permit a Republican majority in the house, Sec. Romero will run the house.

Now, further as county treasurer of San Miguel used to draw seven or eight thousand a year or more. Sec. Romero as sheriff got as much as before. Sec. as county clerk, or in whatever office, the family could be impressed to put him, got as much or more.

If you should permit a Republican to come with Sec. in charge, what do you suppose Sec. would have passed in the way of county salaries?

From his past record, his associations, his friendships and the like, nothing personal and political, which side do you think Sec. Romeros would favor in any question between the people on one hand and the conservatives for whom Charlie Spies, for instance, is authority, on the other?

This is putting it right up to you. Mr. Tax-Payer. If you want a return to the full swing of the old game regime in this state all you have to do is to permit a Republican majority in the house with Sec. Romeros in it.

It is directly up to you.

THE DUMDUM MYTH.

The dumdum emperor recently sent a note to President Wilson complaining that the French and English were using dynamite bullets, a practice condemned by all civilized nations as inhuman. President Wilson and Sir Edward Grey have officially, in a dramatical manner, denounced this practice of employing such officers to take the place of their own men in action.

Franklin the great nations of war are doing the reverse, apparently, of employing such officers to take the place of their own men in action.

CONFIRMATION OF COURT.

THE points will look very unusual indeed on the proposed suit for $25,000 against Judge Larson for soccer shot sick man for contempt of court. We question whether Judge Larson the public sentiment in this first country against punishment for contempt of court, inflicting such a severe punishment without trial. There are times when such action by a judge is necessarily not merely for the preservation of the dignity of the court and the integrity of the law, but for order, which makes and in turn is maintained by the law itself.

Am there are times when persons are committed when the commitment is due to the personalities of the judge as he has the power and no police commission has mischievous uses, saying reflecting on a brother judge, which in its turn reflects on the judiciary.
The extreme case should be ex-emerged and for cases of injustice there should be severe penalties. Where there is no trial and no immediate appeal a man's judgment might easily be made the basis for a reasonable action for impeachment.

ON BEING HONEST

(Wallace Farmer.)

Of course we are honest. That is we honestly think we are honest most of us anyway, but we never really know whether we are really honest or not until we are tried.
Preachers, at any rate, ought to be honest, and we honestly think that most of them are, but we change our opinions about one of them once when he failed to play an honest game of croquet, one of the best ways of ascertaining whether a man or boy, woman or man, is honest, is to watch him play in baseball, football, golf or checkers, or in "three-cornered cat" or any other, old play or game.
You may trust him to be honest in weighing out twelve hours of feed and water, without sitting up with him all night. If a woman can play a game of croquet or anything else without trying to cheat, you may take her account of the eggs she sells
